WHAT GROVER SAYS.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL MESSAGE.

A Long and Laborious Discussion of Currency From a Gold Standpoint—Black Eye to Cuban Independence.

Only two subjects are discussed in the message transmitted to Congress by President Cleveland to-day—foreign relations and finance. The principal features and recommendations of the document are summarized here:

1. The Monroe doctrine is upheld in connection with Venezuela's dispute with England, and the British Government has been officially notified that the United States are opposed to a forcible increase by any European power of its territorial possessions on this continent.

2. Our relations with England and Germany in the control of Samoa are inconsistent with the traditions of this country and in violation of the principles we profess.

3. Little comfort is given the friends of Cuban independence. The President says the plain duty of this government is to observe in good faith the recognized obligation of international law.

4. The message merely reviews recent events in Turkey and notes the measures adopted by this Government to protect its citizens in that country.

5. The President recommends that Ambassadors and Ministers of the United States at foreign capitals be provided with official residences at the public expense.

6. The decrease of the gold reserve is attributed to the falling off in exports under the tariff law now repealed and to the increase in the agitation for free coinage.

7. "I never had the slightest misgiving concerning the wisdom or propriety of the recent bond issue, and am quite willing to answer for my full share of responsibility for its promotion."

8. The Government "has paid in gold more than nine-tenths of its United States notes and still owes them all."

9. The following is suggested: The retirement or cancellation of the United States notes, or greenbacks, and the outstanding treasury notes issued by the Government in payment of silver purchases under the act of 1890. This could readily be accomplished by exchanging the notes for United States bonds, long term, of small and large denominations, with a low rate of interest. A feature of the plan would be to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to dispose of the bonds above in gold, using the proceeds to take up and cancel any notes in the Treasury or any that might be received by the Government.

10. National banks should be allowed to issue a circulation equal to the par value of the bonds they deposit to secure it, and the tax on this circulation be reduced to one-fourth of one per cent.

11. Relief should be had from maintaining a gold reserve "under conditions that constitute it the barometer of our solvency." Gold should cease to be an object "attracting the timid watch of our people and exciting their sensitive imaginations."

12. "We are financially ill, and require better treatment and unpleasant medicine."

13. "Free silver means a collapse of the entire system of credit, parting company with the progressive and enlightened nations of the world—in short, national immorality."

14. "Even the continued agitation of the silver questions adds greatly to the difficulties of a dangerous financial situation already created."

15. In conclusion, Mr. Cleveland desires to assure Congress that he is prepared to co-operate with it in the perfection of any measure promising thorough and practical relief.

Bull Run, the first battlefield of the civil war, will be disposed of at auction, to be divided into building lots.

BUT FEW CHANGES.

THE COUNCIL CHANGES SALARIES AND SELECTS OFFICERS.

Reductions Amounting to $310 a Year Made in the Pay Roll—Two Meetings Necessary to Finish the Business—List of Offices.

The new city council met Tuesday night and after attending to routine business adopted an ordinance fixing salaries for the next two years as follows:

Clerk, $300 instead of $400.

Treasurer, $400 instead of $600.

Attorney, $450 instead of $500.

Assessor, $200, no change made.

Sexton, $360, no change made.

Teamster, $300, no change made.

Street supervisor, $600 as heretofore.

Chief of Police, $840 instead of $900.

Policemen, $630 instead of $660.

Firemen, $63, no change made.

Collector, 3½ per cent, of collections.

After this business was finished, on motion of Anderson the council went into executive session and after the room was cleared the election of officers was begun.

Three candidates were voted for Clerk's race.

The contest ended with Withers, Pool and Anderson voting for H. W. Tibbs; Holland, Perry and Flack for C. M. Meacham and Dalton for Lucian H. Davis.

After three or four ballots Flack voted for Davis with an occasional vote for Meacham and Anderson alternated between Tibbs and Davis.

After a few more contests, Flack was taken without a result being reported and then a motion was adopted to drop the hindmost man on the next ballot.

On the 17th ballot Anderson voted for Tibbs; Flack voted for Davis, keeping him from being dropped.

The ballot stood Tibbs 3,

Meacham 2, Davis 2. Nobody was dropped and the deadlock was allowed to remain until the following night.

For treasurer, Buckner Leavell, W. P. Winfree and H. D. Wallace were voted for. On the third ballot Mr. Leavell was elected, receiving four votes to three for Winfree.

J. B. Allenworth, W. S. Winters, W. R. Howell and Jno. Phelps were voted for the attorney's race.

The race narrowed down to the first two and Allenworth was elected, receiving 4 votes to 3 for Withers.

John A. Twyman was re-elected street supervisor without opposition.

L. C. Cravens was chosen tax collector on the first ballot, receiving 4 votes to 2 for R. M. Hurt and 1 for T. M. Woodbridge. Lee Morris, city treasurer, Geo. W. Walker, and Sam Walker.

The balloting then adjourned for the Clerk's race.

The Board of Supervisors appointed, The somewhat celebrated suit of George Mimms against Robt. T. Chilton for $200 damages come up for trial at Pembroke Tuesday, but the jury failed to agree upon a verdict and the case will have to be gone over again. About two months ago, while Mr. Mimms was hunting, his dogs, it is claimed, disturbed a flock of sheep belonging to Mr. Chilton, and two of the dogs were killed. He sued the suit. Messrs. Clark and Howell represent Mr. Mimms and Messrs. Bush and Petree are the attorneys for Mr. Chilton.

R. Y. Pendleton, D. E. Fowler, G. W.

Wiley, H. C. Gant and R. J. Carothers as the Board of Supervisors for the tax list of 1890 and they will meet in this city Monday, Jan. 6.

length of time to give the Sheriff an opportunity of notifying those whose assessments have been raised. They will then re-assemble and be in session five days to hear final complaints.

SHIPS AT LARGE.

FAYETTEVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 4.—The two negroes who assaulted the little daughter of Mr. Wm. Walker Monday morning on Stewart's Creek, this county, have not yet been apprehended, although the country has been thoroughly searched.

Five negroes who were unable to explain their whereabouts satisfactorily when the event occurred, were identified after the girl was found, but the little girl for identification but being unable to say that either of them were the negroes who assaulted her, they were given their liberty.

It is now thought that the guilty parties escaped into Alabama, as the State line is only a few miles distant from the locality where the crime was perpetrated. Every effort will be made to apprehend the offenders, and to punish them lawfully if possible.

L. & N. Freight Wreck.

South bound L. & N. freight train No. 57 was wrecked near Hanson station, a few miles north of Madisonville, about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The engine was derailed and the track was torn up for some distance. The road was blocked by the smash-up for several hours and the express, due here at 4:35 a. m., did not arrive until about noon. One man was hurt in the accident, but the loss to the railroad company will probably be $1,000.

Married the Purple Crayon.

In the county clerk's office at Lancaster, Ky., a couple from the country obtained a license to marry, and a preacher was called in to perform the ceremony. Another local soon accompanied the bride and groom as attendants to the wedding. The minister made a mistake and married the wrong couple. Seeing his mistake, he called them back and married the right ones. The minister says the bridesmaid and best man answered the questions, and he thought them the most profound jurists of the age. In 1870 he was elected county attorney of Garrard, and in 1872 he was Presidential elector on the Republican ticket. In the same year he was the Republican candidate for Congress, but was defeated by Hon. Milton J. Durham. In 1875 he received the vote of his party in the legislature for United States senator. He entered the race for congress again in 1876 the Republican ticket, and was again defeated, although he received 3,000 more votes than were ever cast for his party in the Eighth Congressional District. In 1878 and 1882 he was again nominated for congress but

REFUSED TO MAKE THE RACE.

In 1879 his party named him for Attorney-General of the state, but, on account of ill health, he declined. Only a few later he selected delegates at large for the state to the Republican National Convention at Chicago, where he seconded the nomination of Grant, and was one of the famous "three hundred and six."

During the same year he was chosen as a member of the National Republican Committee for Kentucky and delivered several speeches in New York, Indiana and Ohio.

In 1884 he was a delegate for the state to large to the Republican National Convention of the Kentucky delegation, and spoke against the proposition to curtail Southern representation. President Arthur selected

GOV. BRADLEY.

SUCH WILL BE HIS TITLE NEXT TUESDAY DEC. 16.

Story of His Struggles and Many Defeats—His Interesting Family and Home Life.

The following interesting sketch of Col. William O. Bradley, who will become governor of Kentucky next Tuesday, is from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

William O'Connell Bradley was born March 18, 1847, in an unassuming farm-house about two miles from Lancaster, on the Buckeye road, now owned by Henry Clay Jennings. He was the youngest of eight children born to Robert M. and Ellen Totten

Bradley. His father was born in Madison county in 1808, and ranked among the brightest, legal lights of the state. His paternal grandfather, Isaac Bradley, settled in Madison county in an early day, but finally went to Bath county, where he died. He was

OF IRISH PARENTAGE, his father (grandfather of the subject of this sketch) emigrated from the Emerald Isle prior to the Revolutionary War, at which he rendered valuable service, being at Yorktown when Cornwallis surrendered. His wife was Margaret O'Connell, a relative of the immortal Irish orator and patriot, Daniel O'Connell; and this relationship perhaps accounts for the rare and brilliant flow of eloquence's mouth.

ROBERT M. BRADLEY, father of William O., married Ellen Totten, a daughter of Joseph H. Totten, whose father came from Culpeper county, Virginia, and settled in Garrard county. He also served in the Revolutionary war, when William was quite young his parents moved to Somerset, Ky., where they remained until 1830, when they moved out. Although only 15 years of age, he left the schoolroom and entered the Union army as recruiting officer in Pulaski county, and then as a private soldier at Louisville. His stay with the army was of short duration, however, and he returned home and began the study of law with his father. By a special act of the legislature, the first of its kind in Kentucky, he was admitted to the bar at the age of 18 years, and formed a partnership with his father in the legal profession at Lancaster. This was an able firm, and by close application and constant practice he became master of his profession and gained not only a competency but a high position among the most profound jurists of the age. In 1870 he was elected county attorney of Garrard, and in 1872 he was Presidential elector on the Republican ticket. In the same year he was the Republican candidate for Congress, but was defeated by Hon. Milton J. Durham. In 1875 he received the vote of his party in the legislature for United States senator. He entered the race for congress again in 1876 the Republican ticket, and was again defeated, although he received 3,000 more votes than were ever cast for his party in the Eighth Congressional District. OFFICE 212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

South Carolina's constitutional Convention has completed its work and adjourned.

The New Jersey people seem to be hard to please when it comes to lectors. Within the last thirty days they have rotten-egged Bill Nye and hissed Bob Taylor.

Auditor-elect Sam H. Stone, of Richmond, is a brother-in-law of Cassius M. Clay, Jr., of Louisville. Both are sons-in-law of Hon. Jno. D. Harris.

Beginning with Monday the Clarksville Daily Leaf-Chronicle was enlarged to eight pages, appearing as a six column quarto. This increase in size was made to meet the growing demand for advertising space and to prosper a prosperity we are gratified to see.

The president has nominated Rufus W. Peckham, of Albany, New York, to be associate justice of the supreme court to succeed the late Judge Jackson. This is not the same Peckham nominated once before. It is believed the present nomination will be acceptable to Senator Hill, who defeated the confirmation of Wheeler Peckham and Judge Hornblower.

Gov. Brown is almost overwhelmed by applications, in person and by letter, for the pardon of convicts. Since November 1 he has pardoned thirty persons unconditionally, and eleven conditionally and has commuted the sentences of seven. Within the same time he has rejected 125 petitions. His term of office will expire in four days and the agony will be over.

Dr. Cary B. Blackburn, of Louisville, died very suddenly of acute pneumonia Wednesday. He was on the street the evening before in his usual health, except a slight pain in the side. He went to bed at 8:30 o'clock and before noon the next day was dead. He was 58 years old and unmarried. Dr. Blackburn was the only child of the late Gov. Blackburn and a nephew of Senator Blackburn. He was one of Louisville's most prominent physicians and had for many years been in one branch or the other of the city council.

The December Forum has for its leader a striking article by M. Paul Leroy-Beaulieu, the distinguished French historian, on "Conditions for American Commercial and Financial Supremacy." From the point of view of a sympathetic European observer, M. Beau- lieu discusses the financial problem now confronting the United States government, and points out its only possible solution, which contains many observations of profound significance to Americans, and it is probably the clearest diagnosis of our financial troubles that has yet appeared. Mr. W. D. Howells, in "The Nature of Liberty," contends that the man who is in danger of want or even of death is not a free man; and that the man who does not guard him against this danger and this dread, or does not assure him the means of livelihood, is not a free country—in other words, that liberty and poverty are incompatible. Hon. Theodore Roosevelt writes about "Thomas Brackett Reed and the First Street Committee," describing the conditions which confronted Mr. Reed when Speaker of that Congress, and commanding him for the course which he took to suppress filibustering.

When stately chrysanthemums are in prime, Christmas thoughts are in the air; and the happy combination of both in Demorest's Magazine for December makes it an ideal Christmas number. Page after page of handsome illustrations depict various phases of winter sports, and a timely article on "The Infant Queen in Legend and Art" embellished with numerous and beautiful reproductions of the Madonnas by modern painters, gives some curious legends about the Christ-child, and similar legends about a virgin-born savior that are found in the religions of the East. There is an especially illustrated paper on the Atlanta Exposition; stories by Gilbert Parker and Joseph Hatton are among the fiction; three Christmas poems and lots of suggestions about Christmas gifts and entertainments, and every one of the departments is replete with timely and valuable information. Demorest's is published for $1 a year, by the Demorest Publishing Company, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York.

THE PORTER-DEMSEY CONTEST.

In an interview in the Paducah Standard, Jerry Porter is quoted as saying of his contest:

"It is not, nor has it been my purpose to charge fraud or irregularities. I do not believe anything dishonest has occurred, and only ask for the correction of plain errors which I believe when corrected assures my fair election beyond doubt."

I do not want to interfere with the legal contest, but I have no doubt as to my fair election to it. Life is too short, and the open air is to me free, just for the sake of office, to want to carry any stain or reflection of this kind through it with me, and from what Mr. Dempsey's friends have said to me of him I must believe he shares my feelings in this matter very fully.

And since the testimony shows clearly in my mind that Mr. Dempsey received seventy-seven votes in that precinct that were counted, and that I received 208 votes which by clerical error were dropped in transferring to the election stub book, I believe the error will be corrected and the matter settled speedily.

I shall hope that the public will not be burdened with a long contest, with Mr. Dempsey and myself the actors in it, but that it all will be settled quickly and right just as soon as honest investigations shall reveal what has a majority of votes cast by the people.

Laughingly Mr. Porter said: "By the way, with all the seriousness of the case, still there's a bit of good humor attached to it." You know certain democratic papers criticised Judge Yost being a democrat, for the reason that he is republican, and it turns out now that Mr. Dempsey has Judge Gordon, of Madisonville, as his leading attorney, whom I am told is a republican—a case of "horse and horse!"

TOO MUCH FOR BOB.

Ex-Governor Taylor Hissed at Camden and Leaves the Stage:

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 1.—One hiss from an apparently intoxicated auditor in the Temple theatre here last night so riled ex-Governor "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, that he left the stage in anger, abruptly closed the odd entertainment which he and his brother, ex-congressman "Al," were billed to give. There was a large audience, and "Bob" was making an address eulogizing the South, telling whence it stood and singing old songs, when suddenly the fellow the audience gave utterance to a grout of displeasure and then a hiss. The ex-governor stopped short, turned his eyes upward to the gallery and, in a voice that showed his feeling, said: "There is one fool in this house. I have the greatest respect for the brave men who made their stand at Bull Run, on the battlefield, but I have the most supreme contempt for the person who jeers at the south in this day of good will between the sections. I am sure he never smelled powder. He should be put out."

Then the ex-governor stalked off the stage. The audience applauded him, then the hissing stopped and he declined to reappear. The audience left the house with mingled feelings of chagrin and dismay.

Hardware has solicited the opinions of the leading bicycle manufacturers of the country as to the number of bicycles manufactured in America during 1895 and the probable output for 1896. The responses, which are from the leading manufacturers of the country, place the output for 1895 at 1,000,000 and that of 1896 at 1,500,000. The fair average of these opinions would bring the prophecy for 1896 to near 750,000 wheels. The fear is expressed by some manufacturers that the business will be overdone, more especially in the cheaper grades, although production will be restricted somewhat by the inability to obtain material. No fear is expressed in any quarter of there being any falling off in the demand because of a waning interest of the public.—Hardw.

The duke of Alba is making his American acquaintance another visit. He has such a long name that it is said he cannot fit it all himself. His first name is Don Carlos Maria Stuart FitzJames Portocarrero y Palacio. Then he is also duke of Berwick, duke of Alba de Tormes, duke of Liria, duke of Olivares, duke of Pareda, and duke of Huescar, in addition to which he is nine times a grandee of the first class of Spain, twelve times a marquis and fourteen times a count. His intimate friends call him Carlos. He is a nephew of ex-Empress Eugenie.

DR. HARTMAN SAYS

Now is the Time to Guard Against Colds

—The First Cold Weather.

In a recent lecture at the Surgical Hotel Dr. Hartman is reported as saying that no one need catch cold if he is willing to give the matter special attention; that a cold is the beginning of chronic catarrh, comprising disease of the liver, stomach, kidneys and pelvic organs. All this could be prevented by taking his advice.

The doctor's professional duties compelled him, for many years, to be much on the road night and day, by carriage, railroad and steamboat. During all this time he never caught a cold. This could not have been without Pe-ru-na. He says,

At the slightest evidence of a cold a few doses of Pe-ru-na will cure it.

This is especially reasonable advice, for the cold winter is here, with its storms, sudden changes, sleet, rain and snow. Thousands of people will contract diseases from which they will never recover.

Pe-ru-na cures catarrh of any stage or location. It is the most popular remedy for la grippe, coughs, colds, etc.

Send for a free copy of an illustrated book of catarrh. It contains sixty-four pages of valuable instructions.

Address: The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, O. Ask your druggists for a copy of The Pe-ru-na Almanac for 1896.

MATRIMONIAL.

CAMPBELL-LEONARD.—Mr. J. Wheeler Campbell of Paducah, son of Judge Jas. Campbell, and Miss Mary Leonard, of Eddyville, the charming daughter of Col. S. N. Leonard, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father at Eddyville Wednesday evening. The usher was Messrs. Given Campbell of St. Louis and Edward P. Ward of Eddyville. Vincent Negro's Italian band furnished music for the occasion, and at midnight the couple took the train for the east. They will be at home to their friends in Paducah after Dec. 14th.

CLAGGETT SETTLE.—Mr. Ward Claggett and Miss Carrie Settle were married at the home of the bride, in Clarksville, Wednesday evening, Rev. A. C. Settle officiating. The young couple took the train at once for their home in this country, arriving on the 8:50 accommodation.

Mr. Claggett is a prominent and highly esteemed young farmer, near this city. The bride is a lovable and attractive young lady, and the groom is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in winning her.

JONES-SHAW.—A. A. Jones, of Owensboro, and Miss Sallie E. Sibley of this city, were married at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. H. C. Settle. They left the same evening for their home in Owensboro. Mr. Jones is a well-known furniture dealer of that city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. George Sibley and is a handsome blonde of unusual attractiveness.

J. M. Taylor and Miss Leonia Miller of Elkhorn, were married at the Northington House, Clarksville, Wednesday, "Squire Zopher Smith officiating. J. A. Taylor and Miss Leonia Edwards, R. L. Morris and Miss Mary Thompson, all of Elkhorn, were the attendants.

ed him to institute proceedings against the Star Route leaders, but he retired because he and the Attorney-General disagreed about the matter of conducting the prosecutions.

Governor-elect Bradley was married July 11, 1867, to Margaret Robertson, daughter of Dr. J. F.

and Jane L. Duncan, of Lancaster, and a granddaughter of Hon. George Robertson, who was once Chief Justice of Kentucky, and was noted as a profound lawyer. Mrs. Bradley is lady of superior intellect and rare accomplishments. Two children,

George R. and Christine, were born to them. The former, while he was entering manhood, while the latter is a beautiful and gifted young woman, now attending Hamilton Female College at Lexington, Ky. The social circles of Kentucky's capital will be proud of the occupants of the Governor's Mansion for they come with KNOWLEDGE'S BEST BLOOD.

flowing through their veins, and at the same time schooled in all the graces which cluster around and distinguish modern society. Nor will the state be ashamed of its new Governor, although his political views are at variance with that party that has held the reins for 40 years, for his every endeavor will be for the welfare of the commonwealth. The party realizes the fact that consistent economical legislation can alone give them hope of another term of office.

A glance at the public life of Governor Bradley reveals a number of defeats. This was not due to any want of zeal, earnestness or capability on his part, but to the fact that his party did not agree with him on the issues which he advocated. His life also very clearly the truth of the trite saying, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Although the Governor is of low status, he is of big heart and brain.

His private life has been marked by many acts of benevolence and deeds of charity, and while he is a very industrious man, he has qualities eminently social. During the few rests which he takes from business he is very companionable, and is fond of an anecdote, in relating which he is the peer of any man. Of course, every every public man has enemies, and he will have them, but the large vote which he received in his own and adjoining counties tells of the high estate in which he is held at home.

Colonel Bradley quit school at a tender age, never having attended after he was 14, and yet his language is chaste and his speeches reveal an analytical mind. His education is far above the average statesman of the day, and it is all self-taught.

It is no extreme exertion and constant application. It proves that one man could succeed without a collegiate education where the disposition to work and delve for knowledge was there. Colonel Bradley's information of the affairs of government and his legal attainments quip him fully for the duties of his position. He readily mastered questions concerning the proper passage of bills and their constitutionalality, so that his good judgment might, in many instances, save the state or individual litigants considerable money and much trouble and annoyance. The precedent established by George Brown in the regular law production of bills, and its continuance will relieve the Courts and the country of much worthless matters which arise from an improper conception of fundamental law.

Mr. Jas. L. Northington, traveling salesman for J. J. Crittenden, and Miss Mary Estes, both of Clarksville, were married yesterday morning and imme-

BASSETT & CO.

The transfer of Kosciusko's heart to the castle at Rapperswil, Switzerland, recalls many stories of the Crusaders, who dying in the Holy Land sent their hearts to friends at home. So, afterward, Sir Robert Peckham died out of England in 1569, but his heart was not buried until 1586. The heart of John Balliol was embalmed by his widow's desire, and inclosed in an ivory casket enamelled with silver. Andshe, the loving Devorgilla, placed this casket on her table every day at meal time, and ordered it put on her own heart when she was borne to the tomb. Then there is the heart of the Bruce dear to eloquence and stump speakers. For strange tales about hearts see the "Lives of the Troubadours," and that dreadful story by Babey D'Aureville, "At a Dinner of Athletes." —Boston Journal.

It was whispered here this morning from Owensboro that Gov. Bradley has offered the superintendence of the Western Lunatic Asylum near Hopkinsville to Dr. A. D. James, of Louisville. It is said that the information is reliable. Some time ago there was a trip to the effect the position had been tendered Dr. Ben Letcher of this city.—Henderson Gleaner.

To-day we present to the tobacco growers of this and adjoining counties the card of the old reliable firm of Ragsdale, Cooper & Co. Mr. W. E. Ragsdale, the senior member of the firm, has been in the tobacco business in this city for many years and is well known throughout the state. R. E. Cooper, the junior member, is also a thorough tobacco man and has a large acquaintance. The firm is a very strong one and will do a full share of business this season. Watch their sales, which will appear regularly hereafter.
